THE DEPUTY SECRETARY OF DEFENSE
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20301

4 September 1979

Dear Stan:

Thank you so much for your nice note of August 27. I am delighted that you have completed your move and are now in your own house. I did not think there would be any problem about your staying at Quarters D until your house was ready, and that certainly turned out to be the case. I am glad we were able to make those arrangements.

I am overwhelmed at the moment by my new assignment, but do indeed look forward to working with you even more closely than in the Navy Department.

Frances joins me in sending our best wishes to you and Pat. With warm regards,

Sincerely,
